At the outset of the meeting, District Magistrate, Central, welcomed all the participants and briefed about Road Safety, in District Central, Delhi.

Following points were discussed in the meeting:

1. Updation/Identification of Black and Dark Spots: - It was directed that Traffic Police (Central Range) and Local Police (Central/North) and road owning agencies such as PWD & MCD shall immediately provide updated list of identified black and dark spots and will forward the same to Road Owing Agencies for taking necessary action at the earliest.

It was also discussed that while identifying the black and dark spots certain criteria's should be taken into consideration, such as road condition, area vulnerable for women safety, passenger volume, peak hour's congestion, diversions, engineering faults leading to accidents etc, faced at different points. On the basis of findings corrective measures may also be proposed to find possible solutions.

[Action- DCP Traffic (Central Range), DCP (Central/North), MCD, PWD]

2. Deployment of Ambulances in District Central: - CATS department is directed to assess the availability and approach time of ambulances in the district. CATS shall provide this statistical data and deployment plan.

[Action- CATS Dept.]

3. Delhi Police (Central and North) to submit reports regarding fatal accidents as per provisions under Section 135-A Motor Vehicle Act to Road Safety Committee.

[Action- DCP (Central and North)]

4. Enforcement of Traffic Regulations: - Traffic Police must take corrective/punitive action with regard to illegal parking & submit ATR in this regard. Further Report should also be submitted by Traffic Police regarding deployment of Traffic Police personnel in accident prone/vulnerable areas & during peak hours.

To identify accident prone areas in the district so that such area can be facilitated with safety measures.

As per new directions regarding Bus Lanes, a bus lane discipline report to be submitted to DM Central.

Enforcement Officers of Transport Department to submit report regarding road encroachment on bus-stretch lanes to concerned area SDMs.

[Action- DCP Traffic (Central Range) & MLO/DTO]

5. To conduct campaign to spread awareness: - It was also decided that awareness session to be organized regarding Road Safety in schools and related Educational Institutes. Traffic Police and DDE (North/Central) to coordinate with one another for such awareness sessions. DDE Central & North are directed to submit an Action Taken Report (ATR) in this regard.

[Action- DCP Traffic (Central Range) & DDE (Central/North)]

6. Creation of wayside amenities: - PWD, MCD will furnish list of public convenience available on roads. Further, they must also submit the proposals under consideration regarding construction of public conveniences.

The road owning agencies (MCD, PWD) and Traffic Police shall regularly examine the areas where railings/footpaths/public convenience are required to be repaired, current status and requirement of blinkers/signage's/speed breakers near each schools & hospitals. The efforts must be made to cover all major schools & hospitals with appropriate signage's/blinkers/speed breakers to ensure smooth access & stop antisocial approach

[Action- MCD and PWD]

7. All concerned SDMs to organize meetings with Traffic Police, MTAs, RWAs & NGOs regarding identification of designated Auto/Taxi Stands and also suggest inputs for smooth running of traffic in their respective area.

[Action- All SDMs, Central District]

*With reference to letter no. F.No11/DC/NW/VIG./2014DRSC/542 dated 18/12/2019 regarding notification of District Level Road Safety Committee, Regional Transport Officer (RTO)/Asst.
